Our new Santa Clarita District Office is a one-stop-shop for business owners and other taxpayers to register for a permit or license, file a tax return, have their tax questions answered, and better serve our customers. Our Taxpayer Service Center features self-service kiosks that allow you to conveniently complete transactions and make payments.

We also offer a state-of-the-art electronic queuing system to efficiently check in customers and direct taxpayers to where they need to go without having to wait in a long line. Our new location also offers free parking and convenient access to freeways and public transportation.
